SMELLING"

SALTS BOTTLE

ODCHID.

the

Kirkwood Mitchell Donnan,

Mrs. James E. Kearney, Mrs. Wellford

C. Reed, Mrs. Garrett Wall, and Mrs. T. A. Weller.

On Tuesday evening Mr. Fox, the novel-

WILL BE QUITE GAY

MANY EVENTS OF SOCIAL INTER-EST PLANNED FOR HOLIDAYS.

FEATURES OF THE PAST WEEK

First German of the Assembly-Several Elegant Receptions-Mrs. Scott's Luncheon-Evenings at the Woman's Club-Personal Notes.

The Christmas which is almost with u promises to bring a number of delightful entertainments with it. Though some must still be veiled in mystery, two germans and a fancy ball are in sight, and the fact that it is "presents" not absence that makes the heart grow fonder being established, the express companies will probably have their usual difficulty in bringing the Christmas girl and her equally popular elder sister the tribute equally popular elder sister the tribute which will be paid them. The death-bed of the old year, it is said, will be well watched over and celebrated by several dances.

gant reception. Mrs. Chelf having recently returned from her bridal trip, was at home to her friends on that evening from 5 to 7 at the house of her father. The genius of Richmond society this season has had a good many moments of inspiration; but it has produced no en-tertainment more unique and enjoyable tertainment more unique and cappy to the house was enhanced by the than the luncheon given by Mrs. Frederic than the luncheon given by Mrs. Frederic than the luncheon was of tail palms, a festooning of smilax, and w. Scott last Monday. The luncheon was of tail palms, a festooning of smilax, and a brilliant array of lamps and candelassorved on tables arranged in a Maltesa brilliant array of lamps and candelassorved on tables arranged in a Maltesa brilliant array of lamps and candelassorved on tables arranged in a Maltesa brilliant array of lamps and candelassorved on tables arranged in a Maltesa brilliant array of lamps and candelassorved on tables arranged in a Maltesa brilliant array of lamps and candelassorved on tables arranged in a Maltesa brilliant array of lamps and candelassorved on tables arranged in a Maltesa brilliant array of lamps and candelassorved on tables arranged in a Maltesa brilliant array of lamps and candelassorved on tables arranged in a Maltesa brilliant array of lamps and candelassorved on tables arranged in a Maltesa brilliant array of lamps and candelassorved on tables arranged in a Maltesa brilliant array of lamps and candelassorved on tables arranged in a Maltesa brilliant array of lamps are lamps and candelassorved on tables arranged in a Maltesa brilliant array of lamps are lamps are lamps and candelassorved on tables are lamps are la cross design. From the chandeller diers of smilax were draped downward and caught by centrepleces of American on each of the four arms of as fascinating as ever in a gown of black the Maltese cross. The largest centrea cut-glass bowl, formed the ornamenta-tion of the middle table. Palms decorated the parlors of Mrs. Scott's home, and es of flowers. Mrs. Thomas Hannah, was the honoree of entertainment. The other guests were s. Campbell, Mrs. Thomas Scott, Miss Ross, Miss Hattle Ross, Miss Mary Williams, Miss Myers, Miss Gray, Miss corsage bouquet of violets; Miss Patter-son, pink accordeon-pleated chiffon, and Miss Mary Randolph Thaw, black velvet, Stringfellow, and Mesdames Philip Shield, Bryce Stewart Hume, John Taylor, Ed-Massle, en traine, with point lace and diamonds erly B. Munford, Valentine, Warren Among the guests were Mrs. James Afred Patterson, Miss Lewis and Miss Houston, Miss Beulah Travers Pattison, Mrs. John S. Ellett, Mrs. E. P. Valentine, Miss Francis Peyton Gibson, Mrs. S. W. Tra-vers, Mrs. Anna Dean Carr, Miss Ella Vers, Mrs. Anna Dean Carr, Miss Amy Buck, Charles Venable Carrington, Whiteley, and Moncure Perkins.
"Laburnam," the home of Mr. Joseph.

Bryan, was the scene of a very pretty "musical juncheon," given in honor of Miss Cocke, of Petersburg, last week. Miss Cocke is a fine musician as well as a charming young lady, and during the entertainment played in a brilliant style everal selections of plano mus'c. Miss Randolph, too, gave much pleasure by luncheon table were in yellow; yellow chrysanthenaums and yellow embroideries carrying out the color scheme. The entertainment from first to last was theroughly enjoyed by the young guests, who were Misses Cocke, Augusta Siewart McGuire, Berta Wellferd, Fannie McGuire, McGuire, Berta Wellferd, Fannie McGuire, singing. The decorations on the boon table were in yellow; yellow Berta Weilford, Fannie Mcs. John F. Ewig, Miss Carrington, Mrs. R. P. Grymes, Mrs. John S. Knox, Mrs. R. P. Grymes, Mrs. John S. Knox, Mrs. Landon R. Mason, Mrs. John T. Watson, Jr., and Miss Gibson.

The were beautiful little banjos paper mache and cards enth the pictures of some of the little and Mrs. Willis Cheif poured to the contract of the contract of the little and Mrs. Willis Cheif poured to the contract of the little and Mrs. Willis Cheif poured to the contract of the little and Mrs. Willis Cheif poured to the contract of the little and Mrs. Willis Cheif poured to the contract of the little and Mrs. Willis Cheif poured to the contract of the little and Mrs. Willis Cheif poured to the contract of the little and Mrs. Willis Cheif poured to the contract of the little and Mrs. Willis Cheif poured to the contract of the little and Mrs. Willis Cheif poured to the contract of the little and Mrs. Willis Cheif poured to the contract of the little and Mrs. Willis Cheif poured to the contract of the little and Mrs. Willis Cheif poured to the Juire, Berta Wellford, Fannie Mc-re, Rose Mordecai, Randolph, Bertha Day, and Evelyn Gordon.

The favors were beautiful little banjos Miss Mary Thaw presided at the chocolate table and Mrs. Willis Chelf poured the china painter.

The Assembly, the german club to take

Miss Mary Thaw presided at the chocolate table and Mrs. Willis Chelf poured the china painter.

The engagement of Miss Belle Richardson, daughter of Mrs. O. T.
Richardson, of Chicago, and Mr. Cameron

Miss Mary Thaw presided at the chocothe table and Mrs. Willis Chelf poured the china painter.

The engagement of Miss Belle Richardson, daughter of Mrs. O. T.
Richardson, of Chicago, and Mr. Cameron

was very limited, the entertainment was graved with the pictures of some of the the tea.

the place of the famous Tuesday german, which has recently been going through reconstruction times, gave its first regular dance Monday night at the Jefferson The Assembly bids fair to have a reputation beyond the city for the elegance and exclusiveness of its entertainments. Cer-

On Tuesday evening Mr. Fox, the novelist and writer of dialect stories, lectured and read extracts from his works before the Woman's Club and their guests. In the very interesting sketch which he drew of the character of the mountaineer of the Eastern States, he emphasized their crude force, which, he said, has been common to all mountain peoples—to the Scot in his Highlands; to the Basque, the mountaineer of Greece, and to the Italians of the Apennines. And equal to the vigor and boldness of his character is his exclusiveness. Forms of speech, old habits ainly the german given on Monday night was a great success.

The young ladies present were: Misses Julia Grant, Maria Moseley, Kate Meredith, Nannie Cook, Hallie Cook, Lizzle Grander, Nina Randolph; May Lindsey, of New York; Ella Jackson, Madelein English, Rachel Cook, Calvin Bragg, exclusiveness. Forms of speech, old habits and customs, which have been laid aside Mamie Hill, Mary Rogers, Claire Bierne Lisa Bierne; Louise Dabney, of Chatham; Mabel Todd; Heath, of Norfolk; Barnard, elsewhere, he keeps and perpetuates as the rocks of his mountains perpetuates as the forms of fish and fern. The Ken-tucky mountaineer, he went on to say, was very religious. His chief interests in of Petersburg; Evelyn Gordon; Lidie Lane, of Alabama; Ethel Slater, Loulie Walker; Green, of Danville; Annie Grey, Lelia Gray, Emsie Pegram, Annie Lee Alfriend, Amy Werth, and Judith Deane. life are religion and homicide. In illustra-tion of the Kentucky "crackers" idio-The gentlemen were Messrs, Miller, Carsyncrasies, Mr. Fox read aloud selections from "The Kentuckian" as well as from rington, Guy, Baughman, Waddill, Nolting, Blanchard, Vaughan, Armis-tead, Benson, Ed. Harrison, Gessner Harrison, T. Higginbotham, Lewis Brander, Watkins, Ellerson, Brock, Hobhis shorter stories, and with a dramatic emphasis and a faithful imitation of the mountaineer's dialect which delighted

The parlors which were the scene of witnessed another, almost equally, ele say, looked very lovely. She wore a gown brocade with point lace bertha and dia-mond ornaments, and Mrs. Green, the beautiful costume of black net and diamonds. The other ladies receiving were: Miss Barriett, of New York, pink organ-die; Miss Knox, black satin; Miss Mosoley, white silk with green trimmings;

Miss Brownie Benson, white mousseline de soie; Miss Boykin, black satin and Among the guests were Mrs. James Alfred

Bruce, Miss Elie Maury Werth, Miss Amy

McRae Werth, Mrs. James H. Blair, Mrs. Thomas H. Brander, Miss Mary D. Ellett, Miss Ruth Sublett, Miss E. G. Winfree, Miss M. E. Green, Mrs. John T.

Watson, Jr., Mrs. R. E. Glover, Miss

Kate Fontaine Meade, Mrs. E. Courtney of the bride, was attired in black daughter, wore of black net with jewelled corsage. sister, Miss Lena Harrison Green, silk with net corsage.

Mrs. Green's third his audience. The chairman's guests were Mr. Rosewell Fage, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ran-dolph, Mrs. Montague, Miss Lilly Logan, and Miss Taylor; Mrs. Maryus Jones, of dolph, Mrs. Montague, Miss Lilly Logan, and Miss Taylor; Mrs. Maryus Jones, of Gloucester; Miss Mildred Hoge, of Frankfort, Ky.; Miss Emma Hoge, of Staunton, and Miss Hicks, of Lawrenceville. The hostesses of the occasion were Mrs. Isaac Davenport, Miss Mary Lewis, Mrs. L. R. Dashiell, and Mrs. Decatur Axtell, who presided at the tea-table.

The entertainment given yesterday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Myers, in Mrs. T. Wilber Chelf's wedding reception several weeks ago on Tuesday evening Mr. R. B. Green. The natural beauty of The entertainment given yesterday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Myers, in celebration of the anniversary of their wedding-day, was a delightful social event. The rooms of Mr. Myers's handsome home, on Eighth street, were effectively decorated in green and pink. The lights were shaded with pink globes and garlands of evergreens were gracefully draped about the pictures and mantels, with groups of palms about the rest of the rooms. For several hours the lower floor was crowded with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Myers, who tendered them many hearty congratulations on their anniversary.

On Tuesday night the members of the Art Club showed that they were willing to go through a good deal of water if not fire in order to see each other. In spite of the rainy weather there was quite a large gathering of the club mem bers at the club tea arranged by Mrs. Hodges and Mrs. Malvin T. Patterson, and the guests were rewarded for their coming. Miss Annie Steeger Winston read for their entertainment her first published story, called "Tucker's Tour." published story, called Tucker's Tour.
Among those present were Mr. and Mrs.
Malvern T. Patterson, Mrs. Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Bentley, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carrington, Mr. and Mrs.
Maury, Miss Annie Wise Mayo; Dr. Maury, Miss Annie Wise Mayo; Dr. Brodnax, of the University College of Medicine; Mr. Spencer, Mrs. John A. Sloan, Miss Ella Bruce, Miss Patterson, John Rutherfoord, Mr. Jones, and Mr. H. T. Hazzard. One of the interests of the evening was

Mrs. Fred Carrington's exhibit of hand-Mrs. Fred Carrington's exhibit of anal-painted china. Mrs. Carrington's work showed remarkable harmony of coloring and evenness of surface. All learned in ceramics will remember that china paints have a persistent habit of attracting dust, which would be enough to spoil the temper of an angel taking lessons in china painting, and that an even surface is evidence of great skill on the part of the china painter.

Johnson, formerly of this city, has been announced, and their marriage is to take place on December list. Miss Richard-son's father is one of the largest coal dealers of Chicago, and Mr. Cameron Johnson, son of the late Major W. J. Johnson, left Richmond some years ago to take charge of a mission in Japan, and has since done a splendid work there and been a frequent contributor to maga zines of this country. Directly after their wedding Mr. Cameron Johnson and his bride-elect will leave for Japan.

One of the prettiest books on the shelves of the book stores for Christmas is a little volume bound in white with a design of the green leaves and red berries of holly. The title is "Uncle Jerry and Other Stories," by Gillie Cary. The pathetic and tender little stories have the attractive setting of vivacious style and interesting Illustrations by Mrs. W. A. Garber and Mrs. Parker Dashiell, two well known artistis of this city.
Another Richmond author, Mr. William

Sheppard, has a story in Harper's Christmas No. The story is as interesting as the fine illustrations in wash-work, by Mr. Sheppard.

Mrs. Junius R. Riddick, of west Franklin street, gave a very elegant luncheon at the Jefferson last Thursday in honor of Miss Mabel Todd and her guest, Miss Holtze, of New York. The luncheon was served in courses, with delicious wines. American Beauties decorated the tables, and each guest received as a souvenir a bunch of American Beauty roses, tied with satin ribbon. The ladies present were Mrs. Warner Moore, Mrs. Charies
Todd, Miss Mary E. Moore, Miss Taibott, Miss Bosher, Miss Holtze, and Miss Mabel
Todd. Mrs. Junius R. Riddick, of west Frank-

Mrs. McClaren entertained a number of ladies in her handsome home, on Franklin street, at a programme euchre party. The rooms were decorated in Christmas style, with the green and red of American Beauties and mignonette predominating. After the game of euchre and the winning of the handsome prizes, a sumptuous sup-per was served. The table was decorated in pink, with a beautiful centre bowl of American Beauties. Souvenir bouquets of American Beauties. Souvenir bouquets of violets were given to each guest. Mrs. James Patton, Mrs. Allan Donnan, Mrs. William Royall, Mrs. Thomas Bolling, Mrs. Ashton Starke, Mrs. Robert Bosher, and Mrs. John Potts were the guests, Mrs. Starke winning the first prize, a handsome copy of "Life Comedies." Another price, a beautiful picture of a child's head, was won by Mrs. Patton, and the consolation prize, a cap and saucer, was awarded to Mrs. Royall.

The anniversary of Beethoven's birth was celebrated on last Thursday evening by an informal musicale, given by Mr. Hahr and his pupils at his residence, on Franklin street. A few music-loving friends formed the audience. The exercises were commenced by a few remarks from Mr. Hahr, paying tribute to Bee-The ladies elected in November to be members of the club were Miss Elizabeth countries. Miss Beylah Pattersen Mrs. Selections from Beethoven's works which New York. Douthat, Miss Beulah Patterson, Mrs. W. Gordon McCabe, Mrs. L. R. Dashiell, by Mr. Hahr and Master John Powell; the adagio and rondo movements from the Sonata Pathelique, played by Miss Hallie Echols; the adagio and allegretto from the Moonlight Sonata, by Miss Jenfrom the Moonlight Sonata, by Miss Jen-nie Hughes; the minuet and presto move-ment from Sonata, Opus 31, by Master John Powell; "L'Absence" and "Le Retour," by Miss Lillie Seeligson, and the great Opus in Beethoven's last sonata, which received full justice at the hands of Mr. Hahr. The younger musicians gave fine interpretations of the great master's works. Their playing was followed by the reading of several musical essays by Miss Janie Schoen and Miss Martha Painter.

> Miss Davis, of 2700 east Broad street, on Wednesday evening entertained a number of her friends in honor of Mrs. Gott and Mrs. Shipp, who are visiting

> The Court Tea of Thursday, which was superintended by Miss Rebecca Norwood, Miss Pearl Bodeker, Mrs. George A. Lyon, Mrs. A. H. Rahn, Mrs. Mann S. Valen-tine, Mrs. S. W. Travers, Mrs. Preston Nash, Mrs. Charles Stacy, Mrs. Robert Nash, Mrs. Charles Stacy, Mrs. Robert Grymes, Mrs. Brokenbrough, Mrs. John Enders, Jr., Mrs. Braxton, Mrs. Norman, and Mrs. Kidd, reflected much credit on its managers and patronesses. The young people who took part in the entertain-ment gained hearty applause for their singing and acting. singing and acting.
>
> The Matinee Whist Club has been re> organized and met Wednesday afternoon at the beautiful home of Mrs. Stephen Putney, of west Franklin street, where they were most delightfully entertained. The members are Mrs. Stephen Putney, The members are Mrs. Stephen Putney, Mrs. Chiles Ferrell, Mrs. Carlton Jack-son, Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, Mrs. T. Ashby Miller, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Archer Patterson, Mrs. Luther Warren, Mrs. Scott Parrish, Mrs. Thomas Jeffress, Mrs. Warner Moore.

>
> Mrs. Charles Straus gave Wednesday afternoon at her very handsome home, 230 Park avenue, a progressive euchre party in honor of Miss Straus, of West party in nonor of Miss Straus, of West Virginia. Mrs. Morris, of Park avenue, and Miss Shrier, of New York, who is now visiting Mrs. Jonas Marcuse, of No. 7 west Clay street, and has been the recipient of many delightful entertain-

The Misses Lambert, of Floyd avenue, last week gave a very informal but pleasant entertainment to the Monday Card-Players' Club.

At the First Baptist church on Friday night "The Seven Old Ladies of Lavender Town" gave a Christmas sale and entertainment for the benefit of the Sunday school and the Dorcas classes of the church. The entertainment was made very enjoyable to all who attended it. The Girls' Guild of Holy Trinity church on Friday evening held a sale of Christ-mas goods in the lecture-room of the church. The enterprising young ladies urch. The enterprising young ladies charge were Misses Lambert, Miss Ethel Slater, Miss Edith Jones, Miss Mary Ball, Miss Elizabeth Wortham, and Miss Emma Shepherd, with Mrs. Edward Mayo and Mrs. Charles Norman. Mr. Scoville, the affable manager of receiving the cordial greetings of his friends and making arrangements for the next season at the White. The indications are that the coming summer will be a most successful one with this popu-lar resort.

thoroughly enjoyable and the tea table very dainty and elegant in its appointments.

Mrs. John Potts gave a supper last week in honor of Miss Raniett, of Hol-yoke, Mass. The decorations in green and red were very pretty reminders of and red were very pretty reminders of the Christmas season, and the parlors and dining-room were a brilliant scene for a very pleasant entertainment. Mrs. Potts's guests were Misses Mary Came-ron, Mary Williams, Annie McGuire, and Gertrude Camm, and Messrs, Kifkwood Mitchell, George Cibson, McCahe, Stuart Mitchell, George Gibson, McCabe, Stuart McGuire, and T. C. Williams.

Mrs. Bryce Stewart Hume Friday evening gave an informal tea in honor of Mrs. Thomas Hannah, of Chicago, who is visiting Mrs. Frederick W. Scott. The entertainment was one of the mest pleasant of the past week. The decorations were of holly and mistletoe, and the table was ornamented with yellow and violet embroideries and bowls of violets and yellow chrysauthenums. The ladies re-Mrs. Bryce Stewart Hume Friday eveyellow chrysanthemums. The ladies re-ceiving were Mrs. Hume, Mrs. Frederick W. Scott, Miss Charles Venable Carrington, Miss Lulu Walker, Miss Mabel Walker, Miss Quarles, Miss Empsie Pe-gram, Mrs. J. Calvin Stewart, and Mrs. Philip B. Shield.

progressive-whist party given last Tuesday night to Miss Schrier, of New York, by her host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Marcuse, was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the week. Seventyfive couples took part in the evening's pleasure, making the scene of the enpleasure, making the scene of the en-tertainment a very bright and merry one. The ladies' prizes were awarded to Misses Helen and Bland Binswanger, while the gentlemen's prizes were won by Messrs. W. Simon and Gaston Kraker. The decorations of the spacious halis and parlors were beautiful. After the games were played and won an elegant supper was served to the guests.

The "Ladles' Evening" at the Jefferson Club on Thursday proved a memorable occasion for the guests, old and young. The variety of entertainment provided insured every one's having a pleasant time. A number of the guests spent the early part of the evening in card playing, while others enjoyed the beauties of the ball-room in the annex. Music and ar elegant supper followed later in the eve-Music and an ning, and completed the third of the de-lightful entertainments given at the Jefferson Club this season.

Mrs. Charles Strause gave a whist party Mrs. Charles Strause gave a whist party last week in honor of Miss Strause, of Charleston, and Miss Shrier, of New York. The company of the honored guests, the hostess's charming manner of entertaining, and the refreshments which followed the card playing, made a charming entertainment. charming entertainment.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward N. Calisch have

Mr. Solomon, of Savannah, Ga., will visit Mr. Charles Strause, of 824 Grace street, this week.

Mrs. Goldsmith, of New York, will visit Mrs. L. Cohen during the Christmas

Mrs. Molz Praig is visiting her mother,

Mrs. Isaac Davenport last week entertained a few intimate friends at tea, and with her usual grace and ease of manner, which make her such a charming hostess. Miss Emily Houston, of East Main street, last Monday gave a small tea or reception, in honor of her guest, Miss Eva Howard, of Ashland, Va. Miss Venable, of Marion, Va., who attended the wedding of Miss Bowe and Mr. Penn, returned to her home on Saturday. Miss Grace Christian will spend the Christmas holidays with Miss Edmunds of Charlotte county.

Miss Clarence Fonerden is the guest of Miss Margaret Sedgwick, of east Grace street.

Mr. and Mrs. Davies, of 225 Belvidere street, will have a party of friends from Philadelphia visiting them during the Christmas holidays.

Miss Alys K. Tinsley will leave the city in a few days for South Carolina, where she expects to spend the winter. Mrs. Leon L. Straus, of $26 west Frank-

Mrs. Leon L. Straus, of an west Frank-lin street, and her sister, Mrs. S. S. Straus entertained a party of friends from New York at a beautiful luncheon at the Jefferson Hotel on Wednezday. Mr. and Mrs. Kurtz P. Wilson, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Littell Wilson are visiting their mother, Mrs. S. B. Wil-son, $19 west Grace street. They are here son, 319 west Grace arrest. They are here to attend the wedding of their sister, Miss Lily Wilson, to Professor L. R. Hamberlin, of the University of Texas, which will take place next Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother. There will be no cards issued, as only the immediate members of the family will attend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Barnette Douglas, of North Carolina, are the guests of Mrs. Courtney Jenkins, on Third street. Miss Bessle McCellar, who has been visiting Miss Ashby Miller, has returned Mr. George Thompson, of Philadelphia, will spend his Christmas holidays with friends in Manchester. Mr. L. B. Sims and wife are on a visit to Washington.

Miss Lucy Shipp, of Lexington, will spend January with Miss Ellen Lee.

Miss Edna Forbes returned from New York Thursday. She is one of the most prominent of this season's debutantes. Miss Mary West is visiting Miss Carrie Goodall, north Seventh street.

Miss Bertha Edmonds, of south Fourth street, is in New York. Mrs. T. T. Mayo, of 214 south Fourth street, is expecting her brother, Mr. C. H. Powers, and wife, of Chicago, for the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Josie Sterner, who has recently returned from abroad, is visiting her brother, Mr. Alex. Meyer, at his beautiful home, "Restabit," in Barton Heights.

DIAMOND MD SAPPHIDE

BROCKH

Mrs. Mark, who, with her bright little son, Hubert, has been visiting Mrs. Simon Sycle, of west Grace street, left Wednes-day for her home, in Detroit, Miss Saille Parker, sister of Mr. F. M. Parker, Jr., will visit during the Christ-mas holidays Miss Margaret Sedgwich, on Miss Edith Rice, of New York, will this week be the guest of Mrs. Joseph L. Levy. east Grace street.

Miss Raab and her sister, Miss Emily Raab, will spend the Christmas holidays in Baltimore with Miss Caroline Sterns.

Mrs. Henry Myers has been visiting Mrs. L. Stern, of west Grace street.

Miss Etta Rosendorf expects to spend the winter season in Philadelphia. Miss Lilly Rosendorf leaves the city this week for Petersburg. Dr. John W. Brodnax Friday, at 8:30 P M., began his course of lectures of "Anatomy as Applied to Art" before the Anatomy as Applied to Art before the Richmond Art Club. Dr. Brodnax is tho-roughly familiar with his subject, and made the dry facts of anatomy very in-teresting to his disciples. Mr. Pollock Glimer, a clever young pro essor of Pantops School, will spend the coming holidays in the city with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Gilmour. Mrs. T. William Robins left Richmond last week for a visit to Bosto Miss Ellen Guigon is the guest of Cap-tain and Mrs. A. B. Guigon, 1503 Grove Misses Pauline and Ada Mosby, daugh Misses Pauline and Ada Mosby, daughters of Colonel John S. Mosby, are expected to arrive in the city next week. While here they will stay at the house of Mrs. Henningham Spillman, corner of Second and Grace streets.

Miss Rosalie Scott's health is steadily improving, and she has been removed from the Old Dominion Hospital to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carter Scott.

Miss Kitty Heath, of Norfolk, is the guest of Miss Emily Addison, on east Grace street. Mrs. F. Bergen Moran and daughters will spend the winter at the Jefferson, and in the spring will go abroad for two years. Miss Eva Howard, of Ashland, is visiting Miss Emily Houston, of east Main street. Mrs. General Logan is in the city, at the ouse of Miss Nannie Jones, 713 enst

Franklin street. Miss Esten Duval, of Lexington, who

Miss Emma Gildersleeve will spend

Mrs. Raleigh Colston, No. 13 north Sixth

Mrs. Sadle Nicely, of Shickshiny, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. J. Taylor Ellyson.

Miss Helen Christian, daughter of Mr. Edward Christian, who has been at a boarding school in New York, will come home for the Christmas holidays next

Mr. Richard Pegram, who has been absent from the city for some time, returned to his home last week.

Miss Bessie Watkins, who is an inmate of Miss Carter's school, near Baltimore, will be at home during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Junius Mosby are at home, No. 504 east Grace street

Mrs. Moncure Perkins will leave for Albemarle on Wednesday to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.

D. Langhorne. Dr. and Mrs. George Ross expect to leave for New York this week.

Miss Bernard Harvie is visiting friends

Miss Johnson, of Washington, and Miss Scriven, of Savannah, who have been visiting the Misses McGuire, and who made many friends here, left the city last week.

Mrs. Coolidge, of Boston, will spend Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Putney.

Mr. William Nelson, of Danville, will spend Christmas week with Mr. and Mrs. T. Ashby Weller. Mrs. Paul McPhail, of Charlotte county, with her daughter, little Miss Ellen Mar-shall McPhail, are visiting Mrs. Cazneau McLeod. Mrs. Robert Rennolds has returned from a very pleasant visit to New York. Mrs. J. W. Elliott, of Newport News, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles E.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien B. Tatum are the guests of Mrs. John P. Yancey, No. 2 east Main street.

Major Edward Hotchkiss, of Staunton, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss, No. 7 east Franklin street.

> Had Been There Before. (New York Weekly.)

Mr. Citiman: My dear, let's take a cottage in the country. Mrs. Citiman: Why didn't you propos that earlier? It is too late now to make a garden. Mr. Citiman: Yes, that's why I didn't propose it earlier.

(Chicago Tribune.)

Precocious Juvenile: Mamma, it isn't good grammar to say "after I," is it? His Mother: No, Georgie. Precocious Juvenile: Well, the letter J comes after I. Which is wrong, the grammar or the alphabet?

It shines like captured sun beams in as many bues and tints as the rainbow shows-Libbey cut-glass. You can tell the gen-uine by the trade-mark. Always clearly full of hidden dangers. Whether she will find happiness or misery depends largely upon the health and condition of the deliupon the health and condition of the defi-cate, special organism which is the source and ceutre of her womanhood.

The lives of young women are often wrecked because of a mistaken sense of modesty, which leads them to neglect the earlier symptoms of feminine weakness.

These troubles unless corrected, developinto serious chronic difficulties which become a dragging burden, ruining life's best opportunities and blighting all possibility of happy wifehood and motherhood. Any woman suffering from these delicate complaints needs the health-giving power of Dr Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It heals and strengthens the womanly organs; stops weakening drains; gives vitality to the nerve-centres, and restores perfect or ganic soundness and constitutional energy. It is the only medicine devised for this pur-pose by a skilled and experienced specialist in diseases of the feminine organism.

In diseases of the feminine organism.

Mrs. W. B. Duncan, of Arlington, Mo., writes:

"I have used your 'Favorite Prescription' and am never tired of sounding its praise. When my lady friends complain, I say 'Why don't you take Br. Pierce's Favorite Prescription?' I told an anxious mother, whose daughter (18 years old) had not been right for five months, about the raedicine, and after the young lady had taken two-thirds of a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' she was all right. She had been treated by two of our best doctors."

Dr. Pierce's great thousand-page illustrated book, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser" sent paper-bound on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only. Or, a haudsome cloth-bound copy for 31 stamps. Address, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

DAVENPORT, MORRIS & CO.

SEVENTEENTH AND DOCK STREETS,

RICHMOND, VA., offer to the trade

Of Their Own Importation

Miss Esten Duval, of Lexington, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Richmond, returned to her home last week, accompanied by Miss Ellen Lee, daughter of General Fitzhugh Lee.

QUEEN CHOP Colong Tea, with Green Tea flavor. The finest Tea imported.

J. & F. MARTELL.—Cognac Brancies, Pale and London color, in wood and glass. Various vintages, in bond or duty paid.
ARTHUR GUINNESS SON & CO.-Stout

and Porter.
BASS & CO.—Pale Ale.
ROYAL AND C. AND C.—Ginger Ale and Club Soda Water.
COSSART GORDON & CO.—Rich Old
Brown and Pale Bual Madeira, vintage

GORDON-Fine Sherry Wines, V. S. O. P., V. S. O. P., and Amon-

P. S. O. P., V. S. O. P., and Amon-tillado. CARL ACKER—Wiesbaden, Rhine Wines, Laubenhelmer, Nierteiner-Hochhelmer-Johannisberger, Claus-Schloss, Jo-

Johannisberger, Claus-Schloss, Johannisberger, CRUSE AND FILS FRERES—Clarets and Sauterns, Ponet Canet Grand Vin Chateau Leoville, Grand Vin Chateau Leoville, Grand Vin Chateau Larose and Margaux, Sauterns, Haut Sauterns, Grand Vin Chateau Yquem. JULES REGNIER & CO.—Burgundles, Macon, Pommard, Chamberün Clos Vougeet, La Tache Romanee.
Very old London Dock Jamaica Rum, Holland and Old Tom Gin, Ramsays, Port Ellen Islay, and King William IV. V. O. P. Scotch Whiskey, They offer all the famous brands of Champagne, Mumm's Ex-Dry, Moet & Chandon White Seal, Brut Imperial, Pommery & Greno Sec and Veuve Clicquot Ponsardin, Sec. Yellow Label.
Gibson's Spring and Fall 1891, 1892, 1893

Sec and Yellow Label.

Gibson's Spring and Fall 1891, 1892, 1893.

Rye Whiskey, Pepper 1889 Sour Mach, Old Crow, Hermitage and James E. Pepper, in glass. Jacob Grover's and G. P. Wysor's private stock Rye Whiskles. A few barrels of "Fuicher's" Special Quality, and Distillation 1892, Virginia Mountain Whiskey. This Whiskey 12 fully matured, and in our judgment is purest and best alcoholic liquor for sale. DAVENPORT, MORRIS & CO.

de 19-tJal

Have only the PUREST and BEST MILK, CREAM, BUTTER and BUTTERMILK from the finest herd in the State. All milk delivered in glass jars that are always sterilized before filling. This system is demanded, and has been adopted in all of the progressive cities of the country.

PRICE: 6 cents a quart, 3 cents a pint, and 2 cents half pint. Both old and new 'phone, No.

Chatsworth Dairy Co.,

211 North Third Street. (de 19-Su, W&F3m)

Jewelry at One Half Cost,

Everything first-class and of latest. Must be sold before January 1st.

Also, a handsome Oak Wallcase, three Showcases, and one Iron Safe.

Qtto Ostergren,

219 E. BROAD STREET

BOOK AND JOB WORK NEATLY ING HOUSE AT THE BISPATCH PRINE.